

Didactic Conferences and Reading Assignments

While the focus of the clinical years is a hands-on experience, didactic conferences, and reading assignments are often provided as an aide to this learning process. Completion of reading assignments and attendance at didactic conferences scheduled by CHSU, the clerkship directors, the clerkship site, clerkship service, or preceptor is required without exception.