

COM 2095 : Electives

Five total elective clerkships are required, each 4 weeks in duration. 4 of the 5 Elective clerkships can be audition clerkships at the approval of Clinical Education. These clerkships are designed to provide the student with the opportunity to select a discipline and receive hands-on training through the integration of didactic knowledge and clinical experiences. Students will receive exposure to a diverse community of patients in both ambulatory and inpatient settings.

Credits 4