

Education Days - Didactics

Didactic sessions, also known as Education Days and Debrief Days, are held on campus for OMS-III students on core rotations approximately twice per block rotation, and attendance is required. Students are excused from their assigned clerkship and expected to attend Education Days. Students on rotation within 120 miles of the COM are expected to attend in-person.